

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

10 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, )
11 Plaintiff, ) CASE NO. CR05-391 RSM
12 v. )
13 ) DETENTION ORDER
14 HENRY ORLANDO CASTRO, )
15 Defendant. )

Offense charged:

Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Substances, in violation of Title 21, U.S.C., Sections 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1)(A), 841(b)(1)(B), 841(b)(1)(C), and 846.

Date of Detention Hearing: November 22, 2005.

20 The Court, having conducted a contested detention hearing pursuant to Title 18
21 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention
22 hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant
23 can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety
24 of any other person and the community. The Government was represented by Ron
25 Friedman and Rich Cohen. The defendant was represented by Alison Holcomb.

The Government moved for detention, asserting that the defendant poses a very

1 significant flight risk. The Government maintains that the defendant played a significant
2 role in the conspiracy as supported by wire tap surveillance, and that he has access to large
3 sums of cash which may be used to facilitate flight. The defendant has no significant ties
4 to Washington. However, the Government states that he does have ties to California and
5 outside the United States. Further supporting its position of flight risk, the Government
6 claims that the defendant has a history of noncompliance while on supervision in addition
7 to numerous failures to appear.

8 The Government believes the defendant to be a risk of danger given the nature of 9 the instant offense, which involves large quantities of cocaine (5-10 kilos), and the 10 significant criminal history of the defendant, which includes burglary and drug charges.

11 The defense argues for release, asserting that the defendant did not play as large
12 of a role as the Government purports. The defense suggests that the defendant was - if 13 anything- merely a possible conduit. Supporting its position, the defense offers that the 14 defendant did not receive large sums of cash; that he has no assets; and that he resides with 15 his mother having strong ties to his family.

16 Additionally, the defense concedes that the defendant's criminal history reaches
17 to the distant past, however asserts that most of the offenses are driving offenses. The 18 defense rebuts the Government's accusation of substance abuse, stating that the defendant
19 has had no arrests for drug use since 1990, and has no substance abuse now. The defendant
20 is currently working for his mother and is taking the steps to be gainfully employed as a
21 certified court-appointed interpreter.

22 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

23 (1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed the 24 conspiracy drug offense. The maximum penalty is in excess of ten years.
25 There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against the defendant's
26 release based upon both dangerousness and flight risk, under Title 18

1 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

2 (2) Nothing in this record satisfactorily rebuts the presumption against
3 release for several reasons: Using the factors below, under Title 18 §
4 3142 (g), the Court considered the following:

5 (a) The defendant poses a risk of flight as he has a history of failure
6 to appear and of noncompliance while on supervision; he has
7 access to large sums of cash which may be used to facilitate
8 flight; and he has no prospective employment or significant ties to 9 this district.

10 (b) The defendant appears to have a history of substance abuse,
11 which further gives reason for concern of flight risk. The 12 defendant has not admitted to substance abuse issues that the
13 Government finds to be relevant.

14 (c) Due to the nature of the charges, in combination with the
15 defendant's criminal history, the Court finds the defendant to be a
16 risk of danger to the community.

17 (3) Based upon the foregoing information, it appears that there is no
18 condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure
19 future Court appearances and/or the safety of other persons or the 20 community.

21 It is therefore ORDERED:

22 (1) The defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the
23 custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility
24 separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving
25 sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

26 (2) The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private

1                   consultation with counsel;

2                   (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for
3                   the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which
4                   the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States
5                   Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court
6                   proceeding; and
7                   (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United
8                   States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to 9                   the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

10                  DATED this 23rd day of November, 2005.

11
12
13                  
14

15                  MONICA J. BENTON
16                  United States Magistrate Judge
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26